■ ZEUS

Zeus is God of the skies in Greek mythology who also rules as the King of the gods at Mount Olympus. From the moment we envisioned our most premium offering in the property, we knew where we were drawing inspiration from. The relevance was undeniably clear. Our agenda thereon has been to create an experience that invokes a feeling that is as close as possible to feeling like a God.

The Zeus is thus perched at 203 meters above over sea level. You are surrounded by clouds for company & with a view from glass facades of every part of the city along with the beautiful Arabian sea. So colossal that it could truly pass for an abode of the God of the skies.
